THE LEE P. BROWN CRIMINAL JUSTICE INSTITUTE

The Lee P. Brown Criminal Justice Institute includes the Department of Criminal Justice, which offers two degrees: The Associate of Arts (A.A.) degree in Criminal Justice and the Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) degree in Criminal Justice. These two degrees are available in the traditional “face-to-face” manner, as hybrid courses with online and face-to-face components, or entirely online modalities. The concentration in criminal justice administration has been especially adapted to serve non-traditional students seeking a in criminal justice. These degree plans are designed to prepare students to enter careers in law enforcement and related occupations or to pursue higher education. The curriculum in the A.A. degree and the BA degree focuses on equipping the student for roles in policing, courts and corrections. The studies and internships provide a theoretical foundation in the discipline which together with reasoning and judgment fosters the development of skills imperative for these professions. Through directed studies, seminars, and internships students apply their knowledge and learn to participate effectively in the justice system.

The Criminal Justice program provides an interdisciplinary scientific study of victims, offenders and criminal justice professionals in the operation and administration of the American legal system. The program is designed to provide a thorough foundation to prepare students for employment and/or continued education.

The General Education curriculum is central to the mission of Wiley University. It defines and monitors required courses designed to provide a common base of knowledge, values, and core competencies essential to the education of students and their leadership development. It is vital to the accomplishment of the University's mission that a balance between professional and general education be established and maintained in which each is complementary to and compatible with the other.

The goal of general education is to ensure that all Wiley University students become articulate and acquire reasoning and critical thinking, moral sensitivity, awareness of society, consciousness of human diversity, and understanding of the value of citizenship. Wiley University has a core curriculum of 45 credit hours that all students aspiring to become candidates for the Bachelor of Arts, the Bachelor of Science, or the Bachelor of Business Administration must complete. The core curriculum is defined as “the curriculum in the liberal arts, humanities, sciences, and political, social and cultural history that all undergraduate students are required to complete, preferably within the first two years of the University experience” (Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board). The purpose of the core curriculum is to provide the skills, knowledge, and perspectives, known as competencies, which help define the educated person.
