

WILEY READY

CAMPUS ATTIRE & APPEARANCE GUIDELINES

LOOK GOOD

FEEL GOOD

REPRESENT
WILEY WELL

Students are expected to be appropriately dressed when leaving their residence hall room and entering hallways, lobbies, common areas, or other campus spaces.

PLEASE DO

Wear appropriate shirts, tops, pants, shorts, skirts, or dresses.

Wear shoes or appropriate footwear outside your room.

Keep undergarments properly covered.

Choose clothing appropriate for classes, offices, dining areas, and campus activities.

Represent yourself and Wiley University with pride.

PLEASE DO NOT

NO BONNETS outside of your residence hall room.

NO PAJAMAS OR SLEEPWEAR in campus public areas.

No sagging pants or exposed undergarments.

No excessively revealing clothing.

No clothing displaying profanity, drugs, violence, or offensive language/images.

No house shoes or bedroom slippers when attending class or conducting university business.

BEFORE YOU LEAVE YOUR DORM:
DRESSED • PRESENTABLE • READY

Your appearance is part of your personal and professional presence.
